Founded in 1843 by Bishop Charles de Forbin Janson. It is the official agency of the Church by which Catholic children of the world contribute through their prayers and sacrifices to the welfare of other children in more than 100 mission countries. Since its beginning, it has become the personal favorite of every Pope. In 1926, Pope Pius XI elevated the society to Pontifical rank. Holy Childhood endeavors to attain its ends through the united efforts of all Catholic children who are taught to recognize that sensitivity to others is an essential dimension of Christianity. Funds raised through children's efforts are directed to the Association's two-fold mandate, the majority being distributed annually to every part of the mission world by a Pontifical Commission and a portion being directed to catechetical education of children in the United States.

The Education and Promotion Fund solicits adult donations for the purpose of underwriting HCA educational efforts so that a greater portion of children's donations reach children in need.

All allocations sent to the missions through the agency of the Holy Childhood are used solely in the interests of the children of these missions. The Association is officially established in all Archdioceses and Dioceses of the United States.

Pro-Life Society of Priests Announced by Fr. Pavone and Bishop Yanta

Fr. Frank Pavone, National Director of Priests for Life, announced in March of 2005 that he is founding a pro-life community dedicated to the formation and training of priests, deacons, brothers and seminarians who will devote themselves fully to the proclamation of the Gospel of Life. The society will be based in the diocese of Amarillo, Texas, under the authority and stewardship of Bishop John W. Yanta, and will be called The Missionaries of the Gospel of Life.

Father Frank Pavone

Bishop John W. Yanta

"It has been a dream of mine for over a decade to form a community that can accept seminarians who want to devote their entire ministry to the defense of the unborn," said Fr. Pavone. "While there are religious communities that give special emphasis to the right to life, the Church has no 'institutional' society of men whose exclusive focus is to protect innocent human life from the tragedy of abortion and euthanasia. It is time for such a community. I am grateful to Bishop Yanta for allowing me the opportunity to make this dream a reality."

Bishop Yanta, who has served on the Priests for Life Episcopal Board of Advisors since 1998, and who has been particularly devoted to the pro-life cause throughout his priesthood, has already offered several buildings in his diocese as well as an abundant amount of open land that will serve as the center for the new apostolate. "I am excited about supporting Fr. Pavone in venturing forth, with and through the Holy Spirit, in the establishment of a Society of Apostolic Life for priests and seminarians dedicated to pro-life ministry—an immense need at this time in history," said Bishop Yanta.

This society of apostolic life, while drawing on the spirit and mission of the Priests for Life organization, will be a completely separate entity. Priests for Life will continue to exist as an association of the Christian faithful under Canon Law, and Fr. Pavone will continue to serve as its National Director.

Men interested in joining Missionaries of the Gospel of Life should send an email requesting more information to vocations@priestsforlife.org

"This is a pivotal moment in time," said Fr. Pavone. "Throughout the history of the Church, God has intervened in times of great moral crisis and has raised up within His Church the charisms necessary to address those crises. I have long been convinced that God is raising up numerous disciples ready to devote their entire lives to ending the tragedy of abortion, which the bishops have identified as the 'fundamental human rights issue of our day.' I have no doubt that we will see a tremendous and immediate response to this initiative."

Fr. Pavone: "Some might wonder why, with such a shortage of priests, we would "divert" them to this specialized work. The answer is that the pro-life movement is the source of many new vocations! Many will be led to the priesthood precisely because such a pro-life community exists. And this community would serve parishes nationwide."

"It is no stretch of the imagination to say that in God's Providence, He can use humble efforts such as this community to hasten the day of Victory over abortion and the Culture of Death."

"People everywhere in the pro-life movement, especially members of the Church's hierarchy, see the great need for a visible expression of this very real charism. They know that the Holy Spirit has raised up communities in the past —the Benedictines, the Dominicans, the Franciscans, the Jesuits, and others—to address critical heresies and injustices of the times. As the world and the Church confront the evil of abortion—the bishops themselves call abortion the "fundamental human rights issue of our day" —is it not likely that God would set aside for Himself and His Church a group of men who would dedicate themselves to fighting for the sanctity of life?

BISHOPS FROM AROUND THE WORLD HAVE PRAISED THE HISTORIC INTIATIVE:

From Denver, Colorado, Archbishop Charles J. Chaput:
"Under Father Frank Pavone's leadership, Priests for Life has been a tireless and important national voice defending the sanctity of human life. In supporting Fr. Pavone's new initiative, Bishop Yanta and the people of the Diocese of Amarillo are offering a vital service to Catholics throughout the United States."

From Rome, Bishop Elio Sgreccia,
President of the Pontifical Academy for Life:
"The constitution of a community of men dedicated to the defense of human life…should provide a local, spiritual and concrete backbone to the pro-life movement in the United States."

From Rome, Cardinal Renato Martino,
President of the Pontifical Council for Justice and Peace:
"In today's world, the idea of a new religious community founded for the purpose of working to protect human life may seem like a sign of contradiction—but it may just be what the world of today needs! The call to protect life is not only a foundation of our faith as Catholics, but it is the very basis of our recognition of human rights and the right to life. The human dignity with which we have been endowed by God binds us together as members of the one family."

From St. Louis, Missouri, Archbishop Raymond L. Burke:
"I have received with great joy the news of the foundation of a priestly society of apostolic life dedicated to the apostolate of the respect for human life. In every time period, the Holy Spirit has inspired founders of institutes of the consecrated life and societies of apostolic life, so that the spiritual needs of the Church and world might be more fully addressed. Surely, there is a great need in our time for a priestly society dedicated to the conversion of our culture of death and the promotion of a civilization of life. The work of the Priests for Life and its National Director, Father Frank Pavone, has surely prepared the way for the timely foundation of the priestly society of apostolic life. I commend Bishop John W. Yanta for his pastoral vision and generosity in inviting Father Pavone to make the new foundation in the Diocese of Amarillo. I pray that God will bless abundantly Bishop Yanta, Father Pavone and the new foundation."

From Phoenix, Arizona, Bishop Thomas J. Olmsted:
"[This organization] has offered a courageous and articulate proclamation of the Gospel of Life for a number of years. While standing strong in the defense of every human life, it has offered persuasive reasons for respecting the dignity of each person, especially the most vulnerable and innocent among us."
